

English Language – Reading Comprehension Practice (Grade 5–7)

Section A: Multiple Choice Questions

Question 1: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

The sun rose over the hills, painting the sky with shades of pink and orange. Birds began to sing, welcoming the new day. Sarah stretched and smiled, ready to begin her chores.

What lesson can we learn from this passage?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 2: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

In the middle of the village stood a large mango tree. Children gathered under it every afternoon to play games and share stories.

Why did the character feel happy?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 3: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

In the middle of the village stood a large mango tree. Children gathered under it every afternoon to play games and share stories.

What lesson can we learn from this passage?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 4: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

In the middle of the village stood a large mango tree. Children gathered under it every afternoon to play games and share stories.

Where does the story take place?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.

D. It explains a storm.

Question 5: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

The sun rose over the hills, painting the sky with shades of pink and orange. Birds began to sing, welcoming the new day. Sarah stretched and smiled, ready to begin her chores.

Why did the character feel happy?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 6: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

James loved reading books. Every weekend, he visited the library and borrowed new stories to explore. He dreamed of writing his own book one day.

Why did the character feel happy?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 7: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

James loved reading books. Every weekend, he visited the library and borrowed new stories to explore. He dreamed of writing his own book one day.

What lesson can we learn from this passage?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 8: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

James loved reading books. Every weekend, he visited the library and borrowed new stories to explore. He dreamed of writing his own book one day.

Where does the story take place?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 9: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

The sun rose over the hills, painting the sky with shades of pink and orange. Birds began to sing, welcoming the new day. Sarah stretched and smiled, ready to begin her chores.

Why did the character feel happy?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 10: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

James loved reading books. Every weekend, he visited the library and borrowed new stories to explore. He dreamed of writing his own book one day.

What is the main idea of the passage?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 11: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

In the middle of the village stood a large mango tree. Children gathered under it every afternoon to play games and share stories.

Where does the story take place?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 12: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

In the middle of the village stood a large mango tree. Children gathered under it every afternoon to play games and share stories.

Why did the character feel happy?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 13: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

In the middle of the village stood a large mango tree. Children gathered under it every afternoon to play games and share stories.

Where does the story take place?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 14: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

The sun rose over the hills, painting the sky with shades of pink and orange. Birds began to sing, welcoming the new day. Sarah stretched and smiled, ready to begin her chores.

What lesson can we learn from this passage?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 15: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

In the middle of the village stood a large mango tree. Children gathered under it every afternoon to play games and share stories.

Where does the story take place?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 16: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

James loved reading books. Every weekend, he visited the library and borrowed new stories to explore. He dreamed of writing his own book one day.

Why did the character feel happy?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 17: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

James loved reading books. Every weekend, he visited the library and borrowed new stories to explore. He dreamed of writing his own book one day.

What lesson can we learn from this passage?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 18: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

The sun rose over the hills, painting the sky with shades of pink and orange. Birds began to sing, welcoming the new day. Sarah stretched and smiled, ready to begin her chores.

Who is the main character?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 19: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

The sun rose over the hills, painting the sky with shades of pink and orange. Birds began to sing, welcoming the new day. Sarah stretched and smiled, ready to begin her chores.

Where does the story take place?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 20: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

The sun rose over the hills, painting the sky with shades of pink and orange. Birds began to sing, welcoming the new day. Sarah stretched and smiled, ready to begin her chores.

Who is the main character?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 21: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

In the middle of the village stood a large mango tree. Children gathered under it every afternoon to play games and share stories.

Why did the character feel happy?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 22: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

James loved reading books. Every weekend, he visited the library and borrowed new stories to explore. He dreamed of writing his own book one day.

Why did the character feel happy?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 23: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

The sun rose over the hills, painting the sky with shades of pink and orange. Birds began to sing, welcoming the new day. Sarah stretched and smiled, ready to begin her chores.

Why did the character feel happy?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 24: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

The sun rose over the hills, painting the sky with shades of pink and orange. Birds began to sing, welcoming the new day. Sarah stretched and smiled, ready to begin her chores.

Why did the character feel happy?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 25: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

In the middle of the village stood a large mango tree. Children gathered under it every afternoon to play games and share stories.

What is the main idea of the passage?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 26: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

James loved reading books. Every weekend, he visited the library and borrowed new stories to explore. He dreamed of writing his own book one day.

What is the main idea of the passage?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 27: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

James loved reading books. Every weekend, he visited the library and borrowed new stories to explore. He dreamed of writing his own book one day.

Why did the character feel happy?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 28: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

In the middle of the village stood a large mango tree. Children gathered under it every afternoon to play games and share stories.

What is the main idea of the passage?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 29: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

James loved reading books. Every weekend, he visited the library and borrowed new stories to explore. He dreamed of writing his own book one day.

Where does the story take place?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 30: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

James loved reading books. Every weekend, he visited the library and borrowed new stories to explore. He dreamed of writing his own book one day.

Why did the character feel happy?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 31: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

The sun rose over the hills, painting the sky with shades of pink and orange. Birds began to sing, welcoming the new day. Sarah stretched and smiled, ready to begin her chores.

What is the main idea of the passage?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 32: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

James loved reading books. Every weekend, he visited the library and borrowed new stories to explore. He dreamed of writing his own book one day.

What lesson can we learn from this passage?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 33: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

James loved reading books. Every weekend, he visited the library and borrowed new stories to explore. He dreamed of writing his own book one day.

Who is the main character?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 34: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

In the middle of the village stood a large mango tree. Children gathered under it every afternoon to play games and share stories.

Where does the story take place?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 35: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

The sun rose over the hills, painting the sky with shades of pink and orange. Birds began to sing, welcoming the new day. Sarah stretched and smiled, ready to begin her chores.

Who is the main character?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 36: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

James loved reading books. Every weekend, he visited the library and borrowed new stories to explore. He dreamed of writing his own book one day.

Where does the story take place?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 37: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

In the middle of the village stood a large mango tree. Children gathered under it every afternoon to play games and share stories.

Why did the character feel happy?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 38: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

The sun rose over the hills, painting the sky with shades of pink and orange. Birds began to sing, welcoming the new day. Sarah stretched and smiled, ready to begin her chores.

Where does the story take place?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Question 39: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

In the middle of the village stood a large mango tree. Children gathered under it every afternoon to play games and share stories.

What lesson can we learn from this passage?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.

D. It explains a storm.

Question 40: Based on the passage below, answer the question.

James loved reading books. Every weekend, he visited the library and borrowed new stories to explore. He dreamed of writing his own book one day.

What lesson can we learn from this passage?

- A. It describes a busy city.
- B. It tells about morning activities.
- C. It talks about Sarah's family.
- D. It explains a storm.

Section B: Answers

Q.No	Correct Answer
1	B
2	B
3	B
4	B
5	B
6	B
7	B
8	B
9	B
10	B
11	B
12	B
13	B
14	B
15	B
16	B
17	B
18	B
19	B
20	B
21	B
22	B

23	B
24	B
25	B
26	B
27	B
28	B
29	B
30	B
31	B
32	B
33	B
34	B
35	B
36	B
37	B
38	B
39	B
40	B